

On behalf of Sir Ellis Kadoorie Secondary School (West Kowloon), I would like to extend my warmest welcome to all of you especially your sons and daughters who are preparing to join us in the coming academic year 2012–2013. Sir Ellis Kadoorie Secondary School (West Kowloon) is a unique school with students of different ethnic minorities with English as the medium of communication among us. Under such special environment, your children are able to learn how to embrace different people with different cultures. Moreover, our dedicated teachers are ready to exercise their professional knowledge to help your children to develop personally and academically. With greater cooperation with you, our parents, I have full confidence that your children will become all-rounded individuals of the world citizen. To strengthen home-school cooperation, we have prepared a Parents' Handbook which contains useful information about Sir Ellis Kadoorie Secondary School (West Kowloon) including our staff, academic studies, student support programmes as well as co-curricular activities. You are also cordially invited to join our special events during the academic year such as the Parents' Day, Sports Days, Parents' Night and Learning Celebrations etc. which are listed in our school calendar. We hope this Handbook will become a handy tool of linkage between parents and the school. With our concerted effort, we could assure you that Sir Ellis Kadoorie Secondary School could deliver the best services for the betterment of our students. Apart from the information in the Handbook, you may explore our latest information about the school by visiting the school webpage or the school intranet. Moreover, during the school year, the school will actively communicate with you via 'Letters to Parents' and 'Regular meetings with the Principal'. Being a family member of Sir Ellis Kadoorie Secondary School (West Kowloon), you are always welcome to contact the school by any means for further information. The school always treasures your great support and involvement in the coming school year.

May I wish the best of you and we look forward to seeing you on SEKSS(WK) campus.
