Hello Meg,

I hope that you are doing well. It's been a while I haven't heard from you. I'm writing you this email, because I wanted to tell you what I will be doing this weekend.

I'm going to take part in a treasure hunt organized by Nature Club this weekend. In the notice I got, it is said that the treasure hunt will be held on Sunday, on the 11th of February. We will be going to Lion Rock country park, which is famous country park in Hong Kong. I'm so excited about it. My little brother will also be joining me because my mum didn't want my brother to feel left out alone at home. There will be many other students joining the treasure hunt activity as well and teachers will be there to take care of our safety.

We will work in teams to follow a trail of clues around the country Park. It will be fun. There, we'll see beautiful scenery along the way. I hope that we'll also see lots of wildlife such as birds, monkeys, butterflies and so on. I love animals! In the afternoon, we will have a delicious barbecue for lunch. To win the treasure hunt, we will have to try to get to the end of the trail first and find the hidden treasure. I love adventures.

I've got to go now, but before that, I am wondering if you would like to join the treasure hunt with me if possible? To take part in it, you can simply add your name to the list on the nature club noticeboard. I'll be waiting for your reply.

Take care

Chris
